SUNDAYS: JUNE 4 - JULY 30

KNOWING SCRIPTURE

9:15 & 11am | RM 127

9:15 Led by Peter VandeKappelle & Anthony Schiraldi

11am Led by Steve Kristen

Every Christian has the privilege and duty to diligently study God's Word. But sometimes, even those who have been reading the Scriptures for decades can encounter passages that are hard to understand. This course will help Christians know how to approach difficult passages, find the true meaning of each verse, and how to place each passage in its proper context.

THE LAST WORDS OF JESUS

(A CLASS FOR WOMEN)

9:15am | RM 127 | Led by Joann Marlier

Last words matter. In John 13-17 the Apostle John records the final words of Jesus before He goes to the cross. Jesus equips His disciples to thrive in His absence as He prays for them and shows them the way to joy even in the midst of darkest days. As He reshapes them (and us) into His own image, we learn that this Christ-like love will be the means by which the world will be reached for Jesus.

TECHNOLOGY, SOCIAL MEDIA & THE GOSPEL

We live in a culture that is saturated with technology and social media. The rate of these technological changes forces each of us to reconsider how we live, lead our families, interact with each other, and navigate our cultural challenges with a Christian perspective. This class will aim to equip us as we discuss the reality of our changing world and the unchanging nature of God's Word.

BIBLICAL THEOLOGY FOR TODAY

RM 127 | Led by Peter Cooper

Life has tough questions, and in our divided times addressing those questions can be heated, emotionally and politically. As Christians we need to study God's word skillfully on these complex issues. This class will give you tools to identify and trace biblical teaching from Genesis to Revelation, to see God's plan for our good and his glory.

MONEY, POSSESSIONS & THE CHRISTIAN FAITH

RM 128 | Led by Brad Walker

Why does God give us so much instruction on money and possessions? Why did he say more about how we view and handle money and possessions than any other singular topic? Simply put, there is a powerful relationship between our spiritual condition and our attitudes and actions concerning money and possessions. This class will explore biblical positions on money, saving, investing, budgeting, giving, and how the Christian can glorify God with all these things.

APOLOGETICS 101: AN INTRODUCTION TO APOLOGETICS
